ACCOUNT APPLICATION

& TRANSPORTATION SERVICES AGREEMENT

TRANSPORTATION SERVICES AGREEMENT

- 1. This Transportation Services Agreement is executed between the company (aka, customer), as identified on page 1 of this application, and Elite Limousine PLUS, Inc. (Elite).
- The customer hereby authorizes Elite to conduct a credit assessment on the customer through Dun & Bradstreet or other credit rating agencies, as part of the process for Elite to provide credit in connection with these services.
- 3. The client acknowledges that billing for any services rendered by Elite will be determined by the rates outlined in the Elite Rate Book or as mutually agreed upon by both parties. Elite retains the authority to modify the rates or specific components there in with a notice period of 10 days to the customer.
- 4. In addition to the base fare, the customer agrees to cover all extra charges, which may include, but are not limited to, Credit card fees, waiting fees, tolls, additional stops, service fees, fuel surcharge, and any applicable state or local taxes or surcharges. Detailed descriptions and schedules of these extra charges can be found in the Elite Rate Book.
- Both parties concur that GPS logs, encompassing vehicle location and wait time data, are a valid foundation for addressing billing discrepancies.
- For direct-bill corporate charge accounts, unless agreed otherwise, all invoices are submitted on a weekly basis.
- Payment for our Elite service is expected within 15 days of the invoice date. Any delayed payments will incur a monthly interest charge of 1%, as stipulated in our terms.
- 8. Credit card account transactions are settled daily or weekly.
- Elite shall reserve the privilege to halt services for the customer if, after providing prior notice, the customer fails to adhere to any clauses or stipulations outlined in this agreement, and fails to meet the payment terms.
- 10. If Elite opts not to pursue a remedy for one or more violations, this shall not be considered a waiver of Elite's rights to seek the same remedy at a later date.
- 11. The Customer agrees and acknowledges that neither Elite nor the franchisee shall be responsible in any way for any packages, parcels, suitcases, briefcases, or items handed over to the driver, left in, lost, or stolen from the car.
- 12. The customer acknowledges that Elite has relied on the statements made by the customer in this agreement to provide service and establish credit terms. The customer must promptly notify Elite of any changes in the information within this agreement.
- 13. This Agreement shall be considered a contract formed under the laws of the State of New York and shall be interpreted and regulated by the laws of New York State.
- 14. If Elite engages legal counsel or a collection service to recover any outstanding payment(s) owed by the Customer or to enforce any provision(s) within this Agreement, the Customer hereby undertakes to cover all reasonable legal fees, costs, expenses, and disbursements, encompassing actions undertaken before, during, and after the commencement of legal proceedings. This obligation extends to situations where legal counsel is engaged without actual litigation.
- 15. Both parties hereby consent that the delivery of any legal documents or notifications, whether for litigation or other purposes, via conventional first-class mail, courier service, fax, email, or certified mail, shall be legally equivalent to personal service within New York State, effective on the date of dispatch.
- 16. This Agreement represents the comprehensive understanding between

- the involved parties, consolidating all prior understandings, discussions, and agreements. This contract cannot undergo alteration unless it is formally documented in writing and is consented to and signed by all the parties involved.
- 17. The customer assures that all information provided herein is entirely accurate, authentic, and free from any misrepresentation. Moreover, the customer commits to full compliance with the stipulated terms, conditions, and covenants, involving the customer, their officers, directors, agents, and employees.
- 18. All Elite Limousine PLUS, Inc. fleet members (franchisees) are independent contractors who own and upkeep their vehicles. They are accountable for procuring and upholding an auto insurance policy, as required by the New York State and the NYC Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC). Copies of auto insurance certificates are accessible for examination at Elite's office.
